1. Describe the typical dress of a young man in the late 17th Century as depicted in the film. You may draw this.

2. How does the film show the value of theatre and actors in Elizabethan times. Explain how this is presented.

3. Name three notable historical figures in the film.

4. Even though this is a fictional account of Shakespeare's life and times, there are many facets of Elizabethan life that are highlighted in the film. List as many facts about daily life that you can recall, (food, entertainment, relationships, theatre, social class, housing etc.)

5. What Shakespearean play is the film based on? List any other plays that are referred to in the film.