examine the relationship between the characters and motives in this scene. Which of these are the most significant in the play? How has Shakespeare used these elements in his work? Do the characters display a sense of their own inner world, or are they mere puppets? Discuss the scene in which Lady Macbeth and the family appear. How do they differ in character? Which one of these could have made a better choice of the play's tragic hero? 12

Macbeth in detail is described as this deed butcher. When close reading questions

E.

Examination questions

1. The red of blood, and the black of darkness, have been

2. What do you see as the most significant features of the play?

3. What is the meaning of Macbeth's character and reputation?

4. Give an account of Act I, Scene 2, and see when you learn

5. Describe the scene in which the characters appear, and explain the dramatic effectiveness.

6. Explain the relationship between the characters and motives in this scene. Which of these are the most significant in the play? How has Shakespeare used these elements in his work? Do the characters display a sense of the inner world, or are they mere puppets? Discuss the scene in which Lady Macbeth and the family appear. How do they differ in character? Which one of these could have made a better choice of the play's tragic hero? 12

Macbeth in detail is described as this deed butcher. When close reading questions

E.