Reflection Questions

1. In real life, does one person always receive the same treatment as another?
2. What causes differences between one person’s justice and another’s injustice?
3. What is justice?
4. Does justice apply equally to the rich and the poor? To the white and the non-white? To the socially prominent and the social outcast? To the male and the female? To the adult and the child?
5. A person is innocent of a crime until proven guilty in a court of law. If he or she is judged guilty, are we sure this is always true?
6. Should we change the way our society deals with all citizens?
7. Do you agree or disagree with the following statements? Explain your views.
   a. A hero is someone who succeeds at whatever he or she sets out to do.
   b. You can usually tell what kind of a person someone is by how he or she looks.
   c. Sticks and stones may break your bones, but words will never hurt you.