Background:

Greg Stewart is the host of a national radio program called ‘Australian History’. In this interview, he is talking to one of his regular guests, Professor Fiona Patel.

Vocabulary:

Commemorate: To remember an important event or person with a special object like a statue.
Section A: Comprehension questions

a. What does Greg Stewart mean when he says the information on the statue of Captain Cook is ‘controversial’?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

1 mark

b. Tick (√) the correct box.

In what city is this Captain Cook statue located?

- Melbourne
- Sydney
- Brisbane
- Adelaide

1 mark

c. According to Fiona Patel, why does Stan Grant think the information on the statue of Captain Cook is wrong?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2 marks

d. What are two things Fiona Patel says Malcolm Turnbull thinks about the statue of Captain Cook and what are two things Fiona Patel herself thinks about the statue?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Fiona Patel</th>
<th>Turnbull</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2 marks
e. Fiona Patel suggests that changing the information on the Captain Cook statue would be logical. What word or phrase does she use to show it would be logical?

_____________________________________________________

1 mark

f. How does Greg Stewart show he enjoys talking to Fiona Patel and that he thinks her opinions are important? Support your answer with examples of his language and delivery.

________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________

3 marks

Total Marks - Section A: /10
In note form, show the problems associated with the statue of Captain Cook and the solutions people have for these problems.