Background:
Connie is the host of a morning show on the local radio station in the suburb of Waterglen. Each week she invites two people to share their opinions about a local issue. This week's issue is the proposed building of a set of apartments. Vince is a local developer who is building the apartments and Tia is the co-ordinator of a protest group that is against this development.

Listening Task

a. How does Tia greet Connie in a polite way?

/1

b. What does Vince mean by the phrase “clear the air”?

/1

c. What is one question Connie asks and one answer Vince gives:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Con’s questions</th>
<th>Vince’s answers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

/1

d. How does Tia use language and delivery to show she is unhappy with Vince's answers to Connie’s questions?

Language:________________________________________

Delivery:________________________________________

/2

Notes:
e. What are two objections Tia has to Vince's apartment complex?

Objection 1:

Objection 2:

f. How would you describe the interaction between Vince and Tia? Use examples to support your answer.

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________