Background:

Wilmington Secondary College is introducing a ban on mobile phones in 2019. The school principal is speaking to students at a whole school assembly about the ban.

Section A: Listening Questions

a. What is one thing the principal says the school will be doing in Home Group in Term 1 to help students be more mindful?

b. The school principal wants to show he has “listened to” people who disagreed with the mobile phone ban. What is one way he shows he has listened?

c. What does the school principal mean when he says he “wants to be crystal clear”?

d. The principal wants students to understand the rules about the mobile phone ban. What is one example of language and one example of delivery he uses to help the students understand the rules.
e. What are two ways the principal says mobile phones distract people?

1.

2.

f. At the end of his speech, what does the principal say so that his students think the mobile phone ban is fair and something worth doing. Put a quote in each box below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Fair</th>
<th>Worth doing</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr> </tbody>
</table>
Section B: Note taking

In note form, show the arguments against mobile phone bans at Wilmington Secondary College, and the points and examples the principal uses to rebut these arguments.